Registering for Research Units

The first step to obtaining credit for a research experience is Securing a Research Mentor (see MCB website).

Once students have secured a research mentor, they should meet with him or her to discuss any specific criteria that will be required of them, such as carrying out certain lab techniques, attending lab meetings, maintaining a lab notebook, presenting, writing a summary of the research, etc.

Such criteria should be listed on the Registration form below so there is an understanding of the grading process for the student. Students are expected to work a total of 45 hours for every 1 unit of credit (approximately 3 hours per week per credit during a regular 15-week semester). Any questions regarding the requirements for the research experience can be directed to Marisa Lester at marisal1@email.arizona.edu.

Which Course Number Should Students Register for?
The project advisor and the student should work together to decide the course type and number is the most appropriate for the research experience based off the MCB Research Guidelines. The chart below lists the different types of credit available. Due to students’ need for upper division units for graduation, freshmen and sophomore students are allowed to register for 300-level courses.

For Students Interested in Doing a Non-Lab-Based Independent Study Experience
Some students may want to receive credit for MCB-related experiences which are not lab-based, such as writing a literature review, assisting a professor in designing curriculum for a course, or other projects. For these situations, please contact Marisa Lester at marisal1@email.arizona.edu for more information.

How Does the Instructor Report the Student’s Grade?
At the end of the semester, instructors must use the Instructor Center on UAccess to report their students’ grades (www.uaccess.arizona.edu). Questions regarding grading may be directed to Whitney DeGroot in the MCB Main Office at wslay@email.arizona.edu.

The University of Arizona would like to ensure that research experiences for undergraduates continue to be of high quality, reflecting the true nature of the directed or independent research agreed upon. In order to define the research experience for both the student and the project advisor, detailed information regarding the research project is necessary. This Approval Form should be as specific as possible so that both the project advisor and student are aware of the expectations for the project, as well as what criteria will be used to award a grade. The full listing of University of Arizona Policies for Independent Study is available in the current Academic Catalog.

REQUIRED SIGNATURES:

The student’s grade for this course is based upon the student’s completion and performance of the criteria listed in the Project Information & Requirements section above.
